OVERVIEW
This lesson focuses on the creation of the “Star-Spangled Banner” following the bombardment of Fort McHenry in Baltimore in September 1814. Students will analyze a historical document and draw conclusions about what this document was for, who created it, and why. Students will study the lyrics of the song and analyze the words and phrases for meaning and thematic elements.

UNDERSTANDING GOAL
Students will be able to understand and explain the meaning and significance of the “Star-Spangled Banner.”

OBJECTIVES
The learner will:
- Examine a document as a primary source;
- Analyze and explain the meaning of the document;
- Describe the significance of the document.

INVESTIGATIVE QUESTIONS
What emotions or ideals did the author intend to convey? What symbols and beliefs did he refer to in order to accomplish his goal?

PROCEDURE

Prior to the Lesson

This lesson is best used with 2nd grade students who have a basic understanding of national symbols, or with 4th grade students who have a basic understanding of the events leading up to September 14, 1814 (the War of 1812).

Brief background for the lesson:

On September 13, 1814, British troops bombarded Fort McHenry in Baltimore, Maryland. Francis Scott Key was being held aboard one of the British ships and heard the bombs all night. He was so surprised to see the flag still flying over the fort the next morning that it inspired him to write the “Star-Spangled Banner.” It was officially made the national anthem by Congress in 1931.

Day 1

Step 1

Working with the entire class, discuss students’ understanding of a document. Ask the following questions to frame the discussion:

- What is a document? (e.g., a record of information)
- What are examples of common documents? (e.g., letter, diploma, passport, driver’s license)

Step 2

Explain that in this lesson students will take a close look at an important historical document. Distribute copies and engage students with the “Original Manuscript of the ‘Star Spangled Banner.’” (For 2nd grade, you may wish to display this using overhead projector or Smart Board instead of using handouts.)

Ask students to examine the document. Possible questions include:

- Where does your eye go first?
- How would you describe what you’re seeing? What do you notice about the physical condition?
- Which words or phrases can you read? Has the document been altered in any way?
- Are there any indications (e.g., names, dates) of ownership or time period?
Step 3
Now distribute copies of the printed song sheet (since students probably cannot read cursive style in the manuscript). For 4th grade, explain that they will be working in small groups to study the document and record their responses to the following questions. Second grade students will do the lesson as a whole group and their responses will be recorded by the teacher (on the board or chart paper).
Encourage students to speculate about the document, its creator, and its context. Possible questions include:
- What do you think this document is about? What words or phrases give clues?
- What about language, its tone and style? Writing style?
- Is this a public or private document? What might have been the author’s purpose in writing this? (PIE - Persuade, Inform, or Entertain)
- Who might have been the intended audience?
Help students to think about their personal responses to the document. Possible questions include:
- What surprises you about what you’re seeing?
- What do you want to know about this document?

Step 4
Come back together (4th grade) as a whole group and ask students to draw conclusions about what this document was for, who created it, and why. Answer questions about word meanings at this time. (May possibly create some new vocabulary words to study for the week.)
Ask students to summarize what they know about the “Star-Spangled Banner.” Possible questions include:
- What was happening during this period?
- What words or phrases specifically refer to the War of 1812 and the bombardment that Key witnessed?
- What importance does this document have?

Step 5
Ask students to identify the phrases that made the strongest impression on them, or their favorite words or phrases from the song.
For 4th grade, have them write out a response explaining their choice(s) of favorite words or phrases or why a particular phrase made such a strong impression on them.
For 2nd grade, create a class chart with words and phrases recorded by the teacher.

Day 2

Step 6
With the entire class, listen to the three performances of the song:
- Victor Marching Band Performing Star Spangled Banner
- Victor Mixed Chorus Performing Star Spangled Banner
- Whitney Houston Singing Star Spangled Banner

Step 7
Once all versions have been heard, ask students the following questions:
- Which one most closely matches the mood that the lyrics inspired in them?
- Does the song make more of an impression with the words sung by a group or an individual?
- Which style of performance do they prefer?

Step 8
As a final reflection, have students write about an event where they have seen or heard the national anthem performed: at a ballgame, an Independence Day celebration or parade, a Veterans Day memorial service or parade, etc. Discuss why the anthem is played at these type of events. Younger students may choose to illustrate the event and write a descriptive caption.
EVALUATION

- Teacher observation of collaborative work. (50% of grade for activity – based on participation in class and small group discussions)
- Teacher observation of critical thinking. (50% of grade for activity – based on verbal and written responses to discussion questions)
- For the written reflection in question 5, teachers may choose to use the rubric provided for grading. (See separate sheet “Opinion/Argument Rubric, Grade 4” courtesy of Elk Grove Unified School District, Elk Grove, CA.)

EXTENSION

- Have students work with the music teacher to rehearse and perform “The Star-Spangled Banner.”
- Have students work with the art teacher to create artwork that includes stars, stripes, and the colors red, white, and blue.

Star-spangled Banner

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming,
Whose wood rouses and bright stars through the perilous light,
Of the tempests we watch’d were gallantly streaming?
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
Of the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mist of the deep,
Where the foe’s haughty潮 in dead silence repose,
What is that which the breeze, o’er the towering steep,
As it cuts the air of the tempest, half concealed, half disclosed?
Now it stretched the gleam of the morning’s first beam,
In full glory1 reflected new Shines on the stream;

“Til the Star-spangled Banner forever wave,
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band, who so wealthily swore,
That the home of war and the battle’s confusion,
A home and a country, should leave us no more?
Their blood has wash’d out their foul footsteps’ pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave,

From the arrow of flight or the g shed the snare,
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph o’er all wave,
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
